

THE SOCIETY'S ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

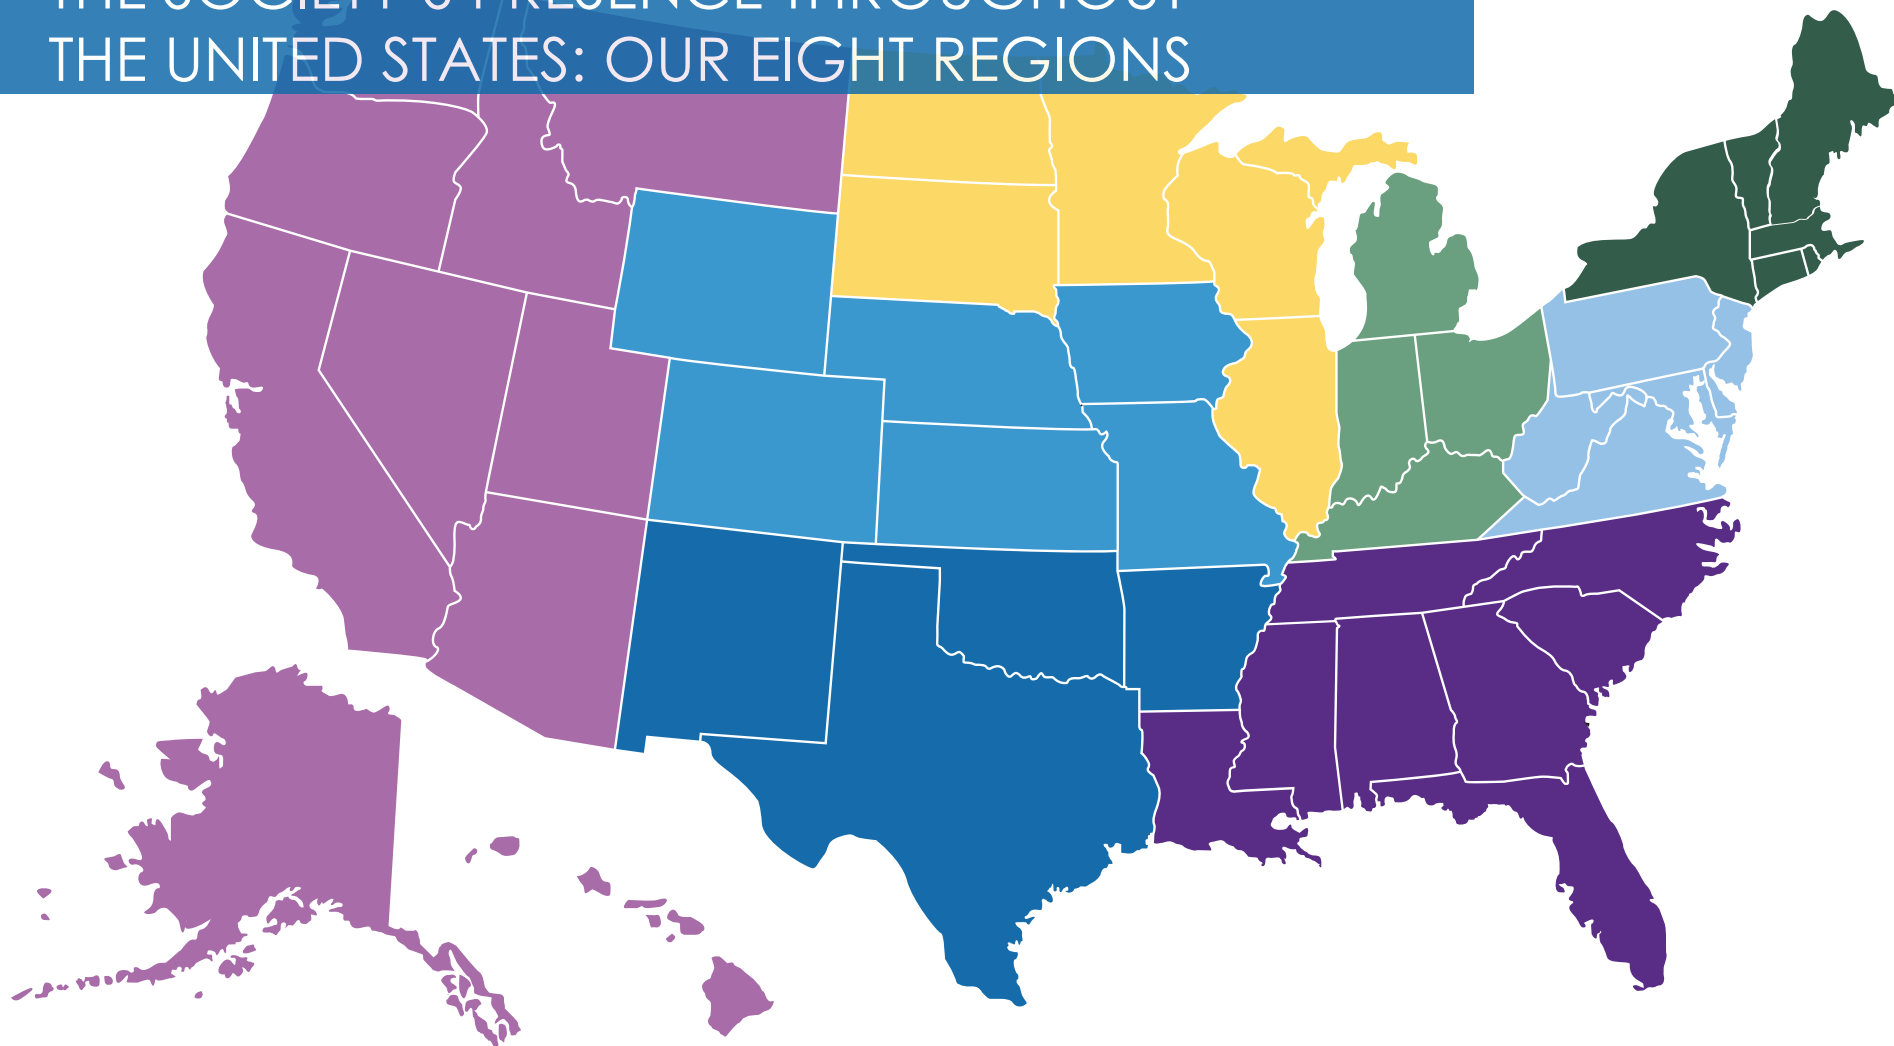

The National Council of the U.S., Society of St. Vincent de Paul provides leadership and support for the growth and health of the Society's Councils, Conferences, and Special Works. The National Council enables Vincentians to better serve their local communities by supporting members' spiritual formation; offering financial support for Vincentians responding to their neighbors' emergency needs; providing information and guidance on advocacy and justice issues; facilitating response to neighbors in need throughout the world through Twinning; and offering assistance to victims of disaster
