

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE UNITED STATES, SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL[®], INC.

Jim Dodd

Treasurer

Jim Dodd has been a Vincentian for over a decade and has served the Society in a number of leadership roles. Jim's involvement with St. Vincent de Paul included volunteering weekly in the Becky and Ted Catino Choice Food Pantry at the Don and Phyllis Neyer Outreach Center in Cincinnati. In addition, he serves on a development committee and the Advisory Board for the Cincinnati District Council. He is an active member of the Christ the King Conference, and is past president of the Archdiocesan Central Council of Cincinnati. As a past member of the National Council, Jim served on several national committees.

Jim attended the Society's leadership program, Invitation for Renewal, in December 2017.

Jim is a member of the Board of Directors for the National Council of the United States, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and currently serves as the National Treasurer. He was recently appointed to the National Foundation's Board of Directors.

Jim is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and is a retired senior vice president of Fifth Third Bank. Prior to Fifth Third, he spent 25 years with Bank of Oklahoma in Tulsa, leading the Trust Division during his last 12 years there. Jim has extensive nonprofit experience, having served on the Boards of the University of Tulsa, Tulsa Opera, Philbrook Museum of Art, and Holland Hall School. Additional Board service, while in Evansville, Indiana for 11 years, included the Evansville Museum and the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra. After moving to Cincinnati, he also served as a Board member of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra.

Jim is married to Elizabeth and has three sons and six grandchildren.
