SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Pauline Manalo serves the National Council of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul as National Vice President of Vincentian Programs and Services.

Growing up in the Philippines, Pauline earned a BA in Mathematics from St. Theresa's College and an MA in Mathematics at De La Salle University, both in Manilla.

Pauline became a Mathematics Professor at St. Theresa's College, then moved into the finance realm in a variety of auditing roles. Most recently, she served as business manager for a Hematology/Oncology Practice in Maryland, where she now resides.

PAULINE MANALO

National Vice President of Vincentian Programs and Services

Pauline has long been an active servant leader in her community, serving in organizations ranging from the American Cancer Society, Hospice of Frederick County, and a founding member of The Religious Coalition for Emergency Human Needs. She has worked with young people as both a math teacher volunteer and a catechist for her parish, where she has also served as a member of the adult faith formation committee, the parish legislative advocacy contact, and chair of the Peace & Social Justice Ministry.

Pauline has been a Vincentian since 1997, and has been very active in the Society ever since. She became president of her local Conference in 1998, then served as Parish Affairs Committee Chair for the Baltimore Council from 2004 to 2009. Pauline was District President for Western Maryland from 2010 to 2015, and SVdP Baltimore's Community Services Board Director from 2016 to 2022. She was also Council Board Chair/President, Society of SVdP Baltimore Archdiocesan Council during those same years, and served as Planning Committee Chair for the 2022 St. Vincent de Paul National Assembly. Currently, she serves on the Baltimore Council Systemic Change Committee, as a formator for the Baltimore Council, and as a member of the SVdP Eastern Region Formation Committee.

Pauline enjoys playing the piano, dining out with friends, attending the occasional opera or ballet performance, and visits to art museums. Pauline also travels far and wide to visit family members residing in different time zones and continents.
