

National Council of the United States

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Sean Myers serves as the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's National Vice President of Membership and Leadership Development.

After graduating from Penn State, Sean sold CRM software and services to B2B companies in North America before striking out to form his own firm, Springhill Software. Since then, he has founded additional software firms and become a sought-after growth and exit investment banker who can identify key market opportunities and form teams that are ready for acceleration.

Sean first joined the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in 1998. Since then, he has served in every role a Conference has, including advocate, fundraiser, treasurer, and president. One of the founding members of the first SVdP Thrift Store in Dallas, Texas, he joined the Dallas Council Board in 2012 and served as a District President for four years.

Sean was elected President of the Dallas Diocesan Council in 2016, then re-elected in 2019. He currently serves as Vice President of the Thrift Store Board in Dallas and as President of the Dallas Council Charitable Pharmacy Board, which is the first and only Charitable Pharmacy in the state of Texas.

Sean has been married to his wife Amy for 20 years. They have two daughters, Rowan and Reese.
