

National Council of the United States

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Michael Pazzaglini serves as National Vice President for the South Central Region of the National Council of the United States, Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Prior to his retirement, Michael served as Executive Director and CEO in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for nine years, leading two organizations to significant growth and impact in both North and Central Texas.

With significant nonprofit expertise in strategic planning, fundraising, Board governance, community outreach and disaster relief, Michael has also chaired several National Council committees, including the Web Oversight Committee and the Communications Committee.

At the local level, he has served the Society in a number of roles, including advisory director on the Diocesan Council boards and as a director of the St. Vincent de Paul Pharmacy board. He has held leadership positions as president at the Conference, District, and Diocesan Council levels.

In the private sector, Michael's 35 years of corporate experience saw him holding a variety of management positions at IBM. There, he led the development and execution of global initiatives to drive growth and transformation, gaining extensive expertise in technology, planning, and operations.

Michael currently serves as CEO/Founder of pazzVantage Consulting Services. When not working and serving the Society, he enjoys playing golf, bocce, and cornhole, but most importantly, prefers spending time with his wife, Barbara, their four married children, and eight grandchildren.
