

National Council of the United States

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

With 25 years of service to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Bat Seymour serves as the organization's National Vice President for the Mideast Region.

Bat earned a B.A. in History and a J.D. from Georgetown University before embarking on a law career in 1997. For the last 18 years, he has served as president of BBC Title Agency, where he manages daily operations of a diversified title agency handling sale, refinance, and foreclosure transactions in both residential and commercial property markets throughout Michigan.

Throughout his time with SVdP, Bat has participated in numerous committees, touching on almost every aspect of the Society's work. A member of the Board of Trustees for the Archdiocese of Detroit since 1998, he has held key leadership positions, including serving as president of that group from 2001 to 2007, then as vice president from 2008 to 2022. He is also a lector and a member of the Finance Committee at Sts. Peter and Paul Jesuit Church

Bat is father to twin sons, Bat IV and Jack, and enjoys golf, squash, tennis, swimming, and running in his free time.

BAT SEYMOUR

National Vice President
– Mideast Region