

National Council of the United States

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Jennifer M. Mone serves as the National Treasurer. She has been a Vincentian for over 20 years, serving as President of her former local conference, St. Boniface Martyr, in Long Island, New York, as President of the local District Council, and then as a member of the Board of the Society's Long Island Diocesan Central Council, as well as its Governance Committee, up until she moved to Florida in 2025. In 2024, Jennifer was honored as Vincentian Volunteer of the Year by the Diocesan Central Council.

Jennifer Mone
National Treasurer

Jennifer is a graduate of Tufts University and earned her law degree from Fordham University School of Law, where she served as editor-in-chief of the Fordham Urban Law Journal. She also completed Harvard Business School's Executive Education program for Women on Boards.

Jennifer brings decades of experience as a trusted legal advisor in the non-profit industry. Throughout her career, Jennifer has guided highly regulated organizations through complex legal challenges while supporting innovation and mission-driven growth. She currently serves as General Counsel to Wounded Warrior Project. Before joining WWP, she served as general counsel for a higher education institution. She also practiced law in the private sector and began her legal career as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Loretta A. Preska, U.S. District Judge in the Southern District of New York.

Jennifer has been married to her husband Matthew, who she began dating in her junior year of high school, for 28 years. They have a daughter who serves as a pilot in the United States Air Force.