SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

A Vincentian since 2012, Linda is deeply committed to serving and seeking ways to better support and assist people in need, finding great fulfillment in building relationships through personal encounters. She lives a life of servant leadership, having taught in a variety of roles for several years before homeschooling her children. She has held an assortment of leadership roles in the Society at the District Council level and as a member of the St. Michael Conference. Her organizational and communication skills come in handy as she continues to help lead our youth and young adults. She enjoys Intelligentsia coffee, shades of green, the number 17, and volleyball. She may also be slightly competitive being the youngest of eight children.
